WHITE: (3oz/6oz)

BOYER-MARTENOT 'en l'ormeau' 2015 $20/$40
(chardonnay, meursault)

vincent boyer can be found in his vineyard with his hands on the vines and in the soil, honoring the legacy of the meursault appellation and the four generations of his family that cultivated the land before him. eschewing the blended style favored by many meursault winemakers, boyer focuses on single-vineyard wine from his 'villages' and the result sings for itself. his wine expresses an entrancing resonance and demonstrates the splendor of simplicity.

DIDIER DAGUENEAU 'silex' 2011 $30/$60
(sauvignon blanc, pouilly-fumé)

dagueneau was born in 1956 in saint-andelain nièvre, burgundy. his vineyard practices combined the exacting and the unusual - he simultaneously reaped extremely low yields, hand harvested in multiple passes, and used horses to plow the soil between vines. he was described as a risk-taker and an experimenter, a perfectionist who would cut yields severely to achieve an even greater ripeness in his product. this unique ethic lives on in each sip of his wine.

RED: (3oz/6oz)

FAILLA 2016 $13/$25
(pinot noir, sonoma coast)

after crafting an impressive resume making wine for some of the most highly regarded producers in california and france, ehren jordan struck out on his own with failla wines. his first vintage release was in 1998, and with failla, he has spent the past two decades searching out the best sites in california for the cultivation of cool-climate pinot noir. this sonoma coast bottling sources fruit from across these different sites to showcase a neo-classic california style.

ROBERT SINSEY VINEYARDS 'pov' 2013 $13/$25
(merlot/cabernet franc/cabernet sauvignon, carneros)

robert sinskey vineyards has been producing incredible wines from cool-climate carneros for the past three decades with a staunch dedication to biodynamic farming and quality. the wines are not manipulated or blended with fruit from any outside source, touting that wine is not 'an athletic event' and is supposed to be 'grown not manufactured.' this riff on the st-emilion style is generous, layered, and rich right from the start, with lush fruit tones and well-integrated tannins.
