WHITE: (3oz/6oz/bottle)

BOYER-MARTENOT 'en'L'ormeau' 2017 $24/$48/$190
(chardonnay, meursault)

Vincent boyer can be found in his vineyard with his hands on the vines and in the soil, honoring the legacy of the meursault appellation and the four generations of his family that cultivated the land before him. Eschewing the blended style favored by many meursault winemakers, boyer focuses on single-vineyard wine from his 'villages' and the result sings for itself. his wine expresses an entrancing resonance and demonstrates the splendor of simplicity.

RUDD MT. VEDEER ESTATE 2012 $28/$55/$220
(sauvignon blanc, napa valley)

rudd mt. vedeer estate stands out as an exceptional place with unmatched terroir – uniquely situated within Napa Valley with a geologic backbone of volcanic rock weathered into core stone bedrock and alluvial sediments creating iron-rich, well-drained soil ideal for growing grapes. Leslie and susan's vineyards are farmed organically by their own full-time team. Having their own team enables some of the most significant winemaking actions of the year to be made in a focused, adaptive, and timely manner. Most importantly, this control over the vineyards allows them to learn from the cycles of each season and alter their techniques to bring out the unique potential of the estate's land.

RED: (3oz/6oz/bottle)

DOMAINE CHARLES AUDOIN 2014 $15/$30/$120
(pinot noir, marsannay)

The first estate-bottled wine exited the domaine in 1972, thanks to Charles and Marie-Francoise. In 2000, they placed the family business in the capable hands of their son, Cyril. After enology school and years of hands-on experience in various vineyards around the world, the fifth-generation vigneron was champing at the bit to take over. Cyril has since increasingly focused on vineyard health, growing in a "lutte raisonnée" (reasoned fight) approach, emphasizing traditional techniques like plowing and organic farming save for emergencies. Cyril attributes a great deal of the estate's progress to his father, who despite officially retiring in 2009, "is always out in the vineyards".

ROBERT SINSEY VINEYARDS 'pov' 2015 $15/$30/$120
(merlot/cabernet franc/cabernet sauvignon, carneros)

Robert Sinskey Vineyards has been producing incredible wines from cool-climate carneros for the past three decades with a staunch dedication to biodynamic farming and quality. The wines are not manipulated or blended with fruit from any outside source, touting that wine is not 'an athletic event' and is supposed to be 'grown not manufactured.' This riff on the St. Emilion style is generous, layered, and rich right from the start, with lush fruit tones and well-integrated tannins.

SANGUIS 'misfit' 2016 $19/$38/$152
(syrah, santa maria valley)

"the proper manner of calligraphy is nothing other than not being careless. But in this way one's writing will be simply sluggish and stiff. One should go beyond this and depart from the norm. This principle applies to all things."

(Hagakure, the book of the Samurai)

"MISFIT is playful, has a sunny and warm disposition, possesses a cool calmness and mischievous charm; she is exceedingly friendly, and doesn't judge whether her company on the table used to have legs, wings or roam the oceans, so long as it has substance to stand up for itself, and ideally a bit of a smoky character. Misfit is a lovely example of the Santa Ynez Valley's many capabilities, composed of it's Syrah core, generous splashes of perfumed Grenache and wild Cabernet Franc, and a bit of muscle and "exotiques" from Petite Sirah and Viognier, respectively." - Matthias Pippig, winemaker
